A ROOM WITH A VIEW

A RESTORED CORTIJO IN THE MIDDLE OF GLORIOUS SPANISH NOWHERE

For an authentic flavour of traditional Andalucian rural life look no further than Cortijo del Marqués. This fine old restored cortijo is located between the Pozeuelo and Arana mountains, set amid olive groves and surrounded by fields of sunflowers and wheat.

The Silo is the royal house, a spectacular round room in the former grain silo measuring a total of 50m². The first floor is a large bathroom area with a spacious shower cabin and a luxurious free standing cast iron bathtub. The second floor has a beautiful exposed wooden roof structure, an extra large custom made bed of recycled wood and stunning views of empty countryside from its huge window.
